COVID-19 Vaccination Policy

As part of Second Helpings’ commitment to the health and safety of our staff, students, volunteers, members of their household, and the public at large, Second Helpings will require vaccination against COVID-19 for all staff, students, and volunteers effective November 19, 2021.

Since the earliest days of the pandemic, Second Helpings has focused on following the best available science to protect the health and safety of staff, volunteers, and students, while working to provide nutritious meals for the agencies, families, and individuals who rely upon them for their food security. These efforts have been critically important as people throughout our community experienced widespread disruptions to food access due to income loss, COVID risk factors, agency closures, and other factors. In response, Second Helpings took unprecedented steps to ensure continuity of operations and expand service capacity, with the assistance of local foundations, businesses, and state and local government. These partnerships made it possible for Second Helpings to more than double its services to the community, create new service models to reach those who were homebound due to quarantine or health risk factors, and to invest hundreds of thousands of dollars in facilities improvements to improve air quality, protect against transmission, and increase capacity.

As the pandemic has progressed, we have learned more about how it is transmitted and the factors that increase the risk of transmission. At the same time, the pandemic itself has changed, with the Delta variant being significantly more contagious, resulting in a spike in positivity rates, hospitalizations, and even deaths. Health authorities indicate that the severe illnesses caused by the Delta variant is primarily limited to those who are unvaccinated. Recent data from the State of Indiana shows that of the more than 3 million Hoosiers who are fully vaccinated, less than 1% have experienced breakthrough cases, with a hospitalization rate of 0.02% and a death rate of 0.006%. The CDC and the Indiana Department of Health stress that vaccination is the best defense against the spread of COVID-19. Vaccination protects not just ourselves, but those in our community whose age or health factors prohibit vaccination, as well as our co-workers, our students, volunteers, and their families.

In our current environment, vaccination is more than a personal preventative health measure, it is critical to Second Helpings’ ability to provide a safe place for our staff to work, our students to learn, and our community to engage in the mission.

There are three vaccines that are widely available in Indiana at no cost, one of which has already received full FDA approval. Full approval for the other two vaccines is imminent. Information about vaccine sites and the vaccine they are offering, as well as links to register are available at ourshot.in.gov or you can call 211 for assistance.

All staff members, temporary staff, and volunteers will be required to provide documented proof that they are fully vaccinated against COVID-19 by November 19, 2021. A CDC vaccination card or a vaccination certificate issued by the State of Indiana will be accepted as documentation. For the purposes of this policy, individuals will be considered fully-vaccinated 14 days after receiving a single dose vaccine or the final dose of a 2-dose series.
New staff members who are hired after November 19, 2021, must comply with this policy as a condition of employment and must have received both doses of a two-dose series of the COVID-19 vaccine or the single dose vaccine prior to their first day of work.

All volunteers, including regular volunteers, group volunteers, family group volunteers, and community service volunteers must provide documentation that they are fully vaccinated to enter Second Helpings’ building. No one will be permitted to volunteer after November 19, 2021, if they have not provided documentation that they are fully vaccinated.

Students enrolled in Second Helpings culinary job training and continuing education classes on November 19, 2021 will be permitted to participate in class in person after showing documented proof of vaccination and all students will be expected to comply with this policy.

Applicants for the Culinary Job Training program will be required to provide documentation that they are fully vaccinated before participating in orientation or any on-site enrollment activities. Applicants who are in the process of becoming fully vaccinated (i.e., have received 1 does of a 2 dose series or are not 14 days past their last dose) may be interviewed by videoconference.

Individuals attending a Second Helpings ServSafe Manager class or testing session must provide documentation at the time of enrollment that they are fully vaccinated or have received at least 1 dose of a 2-dose series and must be fully vaccinated on the class/testing date. Those who have already enrolled in ServSafe Manager classes to be held on or after November 19, 2021, and who decline to provide appropriate documentation, will be offered a refund.

Visitors entering Second Helpings’ building, as well as those attending indoor Second Helpings events will be required to provide documented proof that they are fully vaccinated prior to entry or have had a negative COVID test within 48 hours of their arrival. Second Helpings graduates who are not yet fully vaccinated will continue to receive career counseling and food and transportation assistance remotely or using other methods that minimize contact.

Unvaccinated staff members and culinary students can seek exemption from the policy by requesting a reasonable accommodation for a medical or a religious reason by completing the appropriate request form, which should be submitted to VaxExempt@SecondHelpings.org no later than October 15, 2021. On November 19 individuals granted an accommodation will be required to follow all current safety protocols, maintain social distancing, mask-wearing, and will be required to comply with regular COVID testing requirements as outlined in their exemption approval and any subsequent notices.

Failure of a staff member to become vaccinated as required above will be grounds for termination of employment. Students who fail to become vaccinated will be terminated from the culinary job training program and may re-apply once fully vaccinated.

Second Helpings’ policy requires that all staff members and students receive a COVID-19 vaccination. A medical exemption may be granted upon receipt of a completed form (below) not more than 6 months old, signed and certified by a licensed health care provider, not related to the submitter, and whose specialty is appropriate to the associated condition. Medical exemptions expire when the medical condition(s) contraindicating COVID-19 vaccination changes in a manner which permits vaccination.

Individuals with an approved exemption will be required to comply with COVID-19 testing and other preventive requirements as specified in the exemption approval and as may be updated by later notices.

While Second Helpings will carefully review all requests for medical exemptions, approval is not guaranteed. After your request is reviewed, you will be notified in writing, whether an exemption has been granted. If an approved exemption has an expiration date, you will be expected to become fully vaccinated at that time. Should the condition continue, or a new vaccination contraindication occur, a new request with updated documentation will be required.

Medical Exemption Process

- Complete and sign this form;
- Have your Licensed Health Care Provider complete the Health Care Provider Statement
- Submit the completed documents to VaxExempt@SecondHelpings.org

Incomplete submissions will not be reviewed. Be sure all forms and documentation are submitted at once.

Initial next to each of the statements below:

| I request exemption from the COVID-19 vaccination requirement due to my current medical condition. I understand and assume the risks of non-vaccination. |
| I understand that as I am not vaccinated, to protect my own health and the health of those around me, I will comply with assigned COVID-19 testing requirements and other preventive guidance. |
| Should I contract COVID-19, I will immediately report it to Second Helpings and comply with all isolation and quarantine procedures. |
| I understand and agree to comply with all Second Helpings COVID-19 policies and procedures. |
| I authorize my licensed health care provider to share information about my medical condition with Second Helpings for the purpose of reviewing my request for an exemption. |
| I understand that, if approved, this exemption is based on the current Second Helpings COVID-19 vaccination policy and is subject to change. |
| I certify that the information provided in this request is accurate and complete. I understand this exemption may be revoked and I may be subject to termination of employment or enrollment if any of the information I provided in support of this exemption is false. |
